4 V4 Workshop 3: Responsible AI, Assessment and Digital Didactics (Event—Private), Nitra, SK

10/06/2027—19/06/2027

A hands-on workshop on the responsible use of AI in higher education, academic integrity, the assessment of student work in the age of generative AI, working with sources, and adapting learning activities. Duration: 8 hours (1 day) on-site + approximately 4 hours of online follow-up materials. The goal is to produce recommendations and practical templates for university instructors that will form a separate chapter of the methodological tool (Output 8). Expected learning outcomes – upon completion, participants will be able to: (1) distinguish between acceptable and unacceptable uses of GenAI in student work in the context of academic integrity; (2) propose assessment criteria that take into account the use of GenAI in student work; (3) adapt seminar paper and test assignments to reflect the existence of GenAI; (4) clearly communicate to students the rules for using GenAI in the classroom. Participants complete the entry and exit questionnaires in line with Output 1, contributing data to the project's cross-country evaluation. The workshop closes the cycle started in Workshop 1 by translating critical reflection on GenAI into concrete assessment practice.

5 V4 Workshop 4: AR/VR and Immersive Learning (Event—Private), Miskolc, HU

15/09/2027—24/09/2027

A hands-on workshop on the use of AR/VR and immersive technologies in higher education. Duration: 8 hours (1 day) on-site + approximately 4 hours of online follow-up materials. The room will be equipped with at least 8 VR headsets, enabling participants to work in pairs. Participants explore concrete examples of immersive learning in both technical and humanities-oriented fields, try out VR applications, design their own teaching scenarios, and assess the benefits and limitations of these technologies from didactic, technical, financial, and ethical perspectives. Expected learning outcomes – upon completion, participants will be able to: (1) identify teaching situations where AR/VR is meaningful; (2) design an immersive teaching scenario for a specific field; (3) assess the technical, financial, and personnel requirements for implementing AR/VR in teaching; (4) integrate AR/VR scenarios with traditional teaching methods and assessment criteria. Participants complete the entry and exit questionnaires in line with Output 1. As the closing workshop of the cycle, it consolidates findings from the previous three workshops by adding the immersive-technology dimension to the project's overall picture of digital competencies in V4 higher education.

6 LEAIT 2027 Conference with V4 Project Block (Event—Public), Olomouc, CZ

18/10/2027—22/10/2027

LEAIT 2027 – Learning, Education, and AI Transformation – is the inaugural edition of a new international platform focused on AI, digital technologies, and innovative teaching in higher education. Organised by Palacký University Olomouc (Faculty of Education), it will take place on 20–21 October 2027 in Olomouc in a hybrid format (in-person + online streaming), in line with Visegrad Fund rules. Two distinguished international keynote speakers will frame the V4 project block within the broader Central European research context: prof. Piet Kommers (University of Twente, NL) and prof. Natalia Morze (Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University, UA), both long-standing collaborators of the consortium via the IJREL editorial board and the DLCC conference series. Structure – Day 1: opening plenary with international keynotes (morning); dedicated V4 project block with 6 structured sessions (afternoon) – V4 cooperation keynote, research and evaluation results from the four workshops, panel ‘Responsible AI in Higher Education’, live workshop section on gamification and AR/VR, presentation of the methodological tool, and closing discussion ‘Next Steps for the V4 Community of Practice’. Day 2: parallel sessions, presentation of the methodological tool, and announcement of LEAIT 2029. The conference is the integrating dissemination event for all project outputs.
